

British Blind Golf Open Championships 2017

Northern Ireland Blind Golf are delighted to welcome you to Greenore, Carlingford!

Set on the Cooley mountain Peninsula, Greenore Golf Club is about a mile from the Four Seasons Hotel in the picturesque town of Carlingford, Co. Louth. It lies on the shores of Carlingford Lough and is an old & well-established golf course of renown.

Entrants will arrive Sunday 25th June 2017. A practice day will follow on Monday 26th, followed by a 36-hole Strokeplay tournament. For those competitors who prefer, there will be a Stableford competition.

Nearest airport is Dublin - we will provide two buses to pick up competitors.

Greenore is a reasonably accessible walking course with limited buggies. If the requirement for buggies is in excess, we may require a medical certificate.

Thursday morning 29th June, we will provide transport to Nuremore, Carrickmacross for the Irish Blind Golf Open Championships.

We look forward to seeing you there!
